

ART & CREATIVE MEDIA: ART HISTORY CONCENTRATION, BACHELOR OF ARTS

The Bachelor of Arts in Art History challenges students to examine art and architecture throughout the world and to become familiar with diverse cultures, religions, and perspectives. Art history courses investigate political, economic, and cultural factors in artistic production and reception. In addition to art history courses encompassing a variety of time periods, geographic regions, and theoretical frameworks, the degree includes studio art courses that provide experience with artmaking and courses in related fields, such as history and museum studies. The BA in Art History fosters skills that lend themselves to a variety of career paths and fields of graduate study.

In addition to requirements for the major and general education, students must complete unless otherwise specified by departmental requirements either

- any minor degree program listed in the catalog other than their major;
- 18 hours of credit outside their major (courses must have a different prefix than their major).

Music and Social Work majors are exempt from this requirement. Students may not use the same credits to satisfy requirements for both the major and minor degrees. Students may not use credits taken to satisfy general education to count toward their required 18 hours.
