

SOCIAL WORK, MASTERS OF SOCIAL WORK

The Department of Social Work offers a Master of Social Work (MSW), with an advanced generalist perspective. The program has been accredited with the Council on Social Work Education since 2019.

The program is designed to prepare students for advanced roles as practitioners to practice holistically in diverse and complex settings. Graduate programs are delivered in traditional classroom, hybrid, and online format. To register in graduate social work courses, students must be admitted to the Social Work program for the Generalist or Specialized/Advanced years. The program adheres to a set of professional standards for academic and behavioral performance, including the NASW Code of Ethics. They are posted on our website.

Statement on Licensure

The MSW degree may lead to licensure as a Licensed Social Worker or a Licensed Clinical Social Worker in Colorado or other states. Students are strongly encouraged to work with the academic department and the applicable professional licensure board in the state in which they intend to pursue licensing to ensure all licensure requirements will be satisfactorily met. (e.g. Division of Regulatory Agencies in Colorado) For more information on specific state licensing requirements, please visit the Association of Social Work Boards website.

Mission

Our mission at Colorado State University Pueblo Master of Social Work program is to prepare culturally competent and socially responsible generalist social work practitioners who are equipped with the knowledge, skills, and values to effectively serve diverse populations at all levels. Our approach is rooted in a strengths-based, anti-racist perspective, which promotes the inherent strengths and resilience of diverse individuals, families, and communities. The transformative educational experience develops leaders in the field of social work with knowledge based on scientific inquiry to address the complex challenges facing diverse local and global communities and to promote anti-racism, diversity, equity, and the enhancement of life for all.

Program objectives emerge from the mission statement and coordinate with the Accreditation Standards required by the Council on Social Work Education. Our objectives are to:

1. Prepare advanced social work practitioners with the ethical consciousness, cultural competence, and desire to be lifelong learners who give back to the profession of social work and enhance the global community in which we live;
2. Provide students with the necessary advanced skills in engagement, assessment, intervention, and evaluation in order to competently serve diverse client populations at all levels of social work practice and across the lifespan utilizing the ecological perspective as a foundation; and
3. Prepare students to engage in policy practice, to advocate for social and economic justice, to serve diverse client systems of all sizes ethically and compassionately, and to engage in research in its many forms in order to better serve individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.

Specific Admission Requirements

The Master of Social Work students must be admitted to CSU Pueblo graduate studies program before applying to the Master of Social Work program. Students enrolled in the Master of Social Work curriculum must have prior acceptance into the social work program as Generalist or Specialist/Advanced Standing candidates.
