

SOCIOLOGY, CRIMINOLOGY, & ANTHROPOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Mission Statement

The Department of Sociology, Criminology, and Anthropology is committed to the principles of a liberal education. Our central objective is to teach and communicate the sociological and anthropological ways of viewing the world. The programs in sociology, criminology, anthropology, and women's studies offer curriculum designed to increase understanding of social organization and social relationships and to assist students in developing skills that can be applied to making a positive difference in their professional and personal lives. Each program in the department supports the long-standing interest of our disciplines in examining the human condition and understanding stability and change in social life. The department prepares students to work in a wide variety of occupations or to pursue professional or graduate studies. Our mission is to produce graduates who are motivated and equipped to make meaningful contributions to the enhancement of the human condition.

The department's mission relates to the mission of the College of Humanities, Arts, and Social Sciences in the following ways:

1. The department programs provide classroom environments and field experience opportunities that enhance social awareness, encourage personal reflection, and assist students to further develop critical thinking and problem solving skills;
2. Social action and responsibility, personal morality and accountability, and professional ethics are focused on throughout the curriculum and in co-curricular activities that engage students with each other and in the community;
3. The disciplines within the department are committed to producing motivated and socially aware graduates equipped to make meaningful contributions within a diverse community and increasingly interdependent world.

Women's Studies

Mission

The Women's Studies offers students a different perspective for understanding their disciplines, themselves, and others. Drawing from the rich history of feminist theory and gender studies, this perspective examines intersectionality and incorporates issues of gender identity, race, ethnicity, class, sexuality, and other dimensions of human diversity to examine contemporary social issues, culture, communication, the media and arts, education, civic engagement, social activism, inequities and social justice, and the global contributions of women, past to present.
