

CHICANO/A STUDIES, MINOR

The Chicano/a studies minor complements majors and careers in law, sociology, social work, languages, education, government, business and other disciplines. Courses offer unique undergraduate preparation for those who seek entrance to graduate studies in law, humanities or the social sciences.

Students who plan to live and work in the American Southwest or aspire to careers that involve relations in the American continents are likely to be well served by Chicano/a Studies courses. The interdisciplinary approach emphasizes history and cultural studies, and selected courses provide the student with in-depth knowledge of specific aspects of the Chicano/a community.

Program Goals

- To provide individual courses as well as a minor to fulfill the unique role and mission of Colorado State University Pueblo.
- To offer an individually designed minor in support of students' majors.

Student Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to:

- Critically examine the social, historical, and cultural relevance of Chicanos within the United States and the US/Mexico borderlands.
- Analyze the complexities of Chicano identity.
- Evaluate the contributions of women within Chicano history.
- Examine and interpret how Chicanos have impacted the culture, politics, and history of Southern Colorado.

Student learning outcomes will be included in the academic catalog, the website, and the syllabus for the capstone course.

Outcomes Assessment Activities

- An annual review of student's capstone projects is conducted to evaluate the programs goals and student learning outcomes.
- The program is developing a means of measuring student's progress in core courses.
